Attorney Cornelius advised that this is a draft of the revised Joint Powers Agreement, and it is not a public record at this point. Language was removed related to the creation of the Authority including dates, the transfer of assets, management, etc. The language related to funding is being reviewed by the County treasurer's office. Attorney Cornelius advised that if a conflict arises while working through the process, a waiver may be signed or another attorney may be hired at the Board's direction. He will provide another draft prior to the next Board meeting.

B. Motion, Discussion, and Action Regarding Approval of Central Yavapai Fire District Tentative Fiscal Year 2019-2020 Budget

Chief Bliss presented a draft budget with a $6,100 stipend for paramedic pay and a second draft budget with $6,500 stipend as the Board had requested. He asked the Board to approve the tentative budget, and based on their approval, he will also ask for the CAFMA Board's approval. He explained that if the CYFD Board approves the $6100, CAFMA can still approve the $6,500 budget, but CAFMA would have to reduce funds somewhere else.
